

Prime Minister of Antigua Visits Polytechnic University; Tours Campus and Attends Luncheon with Students

Brooklyn, N.Y. September 24, 2007.....The Honorable Baldwin Spencer, prime minister of Antigua and Barbuda, today toured Polytechnic University and enjoyed lunch with six Polytechnic students from the eastern Caribbean island who are studying at the University with scholarship support from the Government of Antigua and Barbuda. Joining the Prime Minister and students is Jerry M. Hultin, president of Polytechnic.

About Polytechnic University

Polytechnic University, one of the nation's oldest private engineering universities, was founded in 1854 in Brooklyn, New York. Today, it is the New York metropolitan area's preeminent resource in science, engineering, management and technology education and research. In addition to its main campus at MetroTech Center in Brooklyn, Polytechnic offers programs at sites throughout the region, including Long Island, Manhattan and Westchester. Additionally, the University offers several programs in Israel. For more information and to learn more about The Power of PolyThinking, visit www.poly.edu

